

ELEVATE

SEARCH GROUP

In Partnership With...

College of TRADITIONAL
CHINESE MEDICINE
PRACTITIONERS + ACUPUNCTURISTS
of British Columbia

The College of Traditional Chinese Medicine Practitioners and Acupuncturists of British Columbia is the official professional regulatory authority that regulates the practice of traditional Chinese medicine (TCM) and acupuncture in the province of British Columbia. The College is a self-regulatory body that operates under the auspices of the provincial government and through the Health Professions Act, the Traditional Chinese Medicine Practitioners and Acupuncturists Regulation, and the College Bylaws. The College serves and protects the public interest by regulating and advancing safe, ethical and quality traditional Chinese medicine practice in British Columbia. Moreover, the College strives to ensure that registrants establish, maintain and continually improve the quality of care they provide to their clients.

As Director of Compliance, of the College of Traditional Chinese Medicine Practitioners and Acupuncturists of BC you bring an innate passion for serving and protecting the public interest.

Reporting to the Registrar/CEO, the Director is accountable for the strategic and tactical direction of:

- Act as an ambassador for regulatory compliance
- Oversee the strategic and tactical aspects of the complaints process
- Provide strategic leadership to ensure adherence to provide exceptional regulatory compliance
- Enforce Compliance within the Health Professions Act

In addition, the Director will

- Oversee, develop, implement, and maintain all aspects of the complaint process;
- Support inquiry and discipline Committees;

- Manage Regulatory Affairs matters before the various tribunals and the judicial system;
- Develop, implement and maintain risk mitigations strategies as a Privacy Officer;
- research and prepare briefs on policies and procedures;
- prepare budgets; and act on behalf of the Registrar/CEO in their absence.

This will be carried out in accordance with the Health Professions Act, the College bylaws and the Board's governance policies and guidelines.

You describe yourself as a thoughtful and intelligent leader, you are collaborative, engage internal and external stakeholders, display excellence in communications, offer exceptional judgement and discretion, support continued education, able to sustain high workloads over a sustained period of time, and offer regulatory body experience.

Preference will be given to those who possess the following:

Practicing lawyer in BC highly desirable
At least two years of investigations experience in the regulatory context
Administrative Tribunal Experience an asset
Knowledge of the Health Professions Act an asset

How to Apply: Email your resume and cover letter to:

Allan Welyk, Owner – Elevate Search Group

allan@elevatesearchgroup.com www.elevatesearchgroup.com @ElevateSearch

Elevate Search Group collaborates and partners with companies to identify, recruit, and retain top-tiered professionals within all levels of leadership and non-leadership careers within business development, sales, marketing, operations, human resource, and supply chain management. Our client profiles range from local, regional, national, and global organizations. Interested applicants must have a valid Social Insurance Number, be a Permanent Resident of Canada, and meet/exceed the above listed requirements.

We are grateful for your interest in this exciting career opportunity, however only the candidates selected for an interview will be contacted. To apply, please send your resume to allan@elevatesearchgroup.com on or before March 31st, 2019.

600-777 Hornby Street Vancouver, BC V6Z 2H7

604.678.5627

People. Solutions. Culture. Results.
www.elevatesearchgroup.com