Seeking members for the Traditional Chinese Medicine and Acupuncture Education Accreditation Requirements Advisory Committee

CARB-TCMPA is pleased to announce that we have begun to work on the development of national standards for the accreditation of Colleges and Education Programs of Traditional Chinese Medicine and Acupuncture. To facilitate the process, we have recruited Facilitated Improvement for Corporate Success, Inc. (FICS).

To ensure that the standard and requirements reflect leading practices in Traditional Chinese Medicine and Acupuncture from across the country, we are seeking advisors who will help to inform the content of the standards which embed the entry-level occupational competencies.

We are seeking Traditional Chinese Medicine and Acupuncture experts from across the country who are experienced and/or knowledgeable of the entry-level competencies required to provide quality education to future professionals.

In return, you will gain expertise in the accreditation process and you will contribute to raising the level and reputation of the Traditional Chinese Medicine and Acupuncture profession in Canada.

A national accreditation program for Traditional Chinese Medicine and Acupuncture education benefits everyone!

It will...

- Promote a consistent level of quality care to patients across the country
- Promote mobility for professionals from one regulated province to another
- Increase accountability and transparency of education programs in the profession
- Increase confidence in the profession by all stakeholders

If you are interested in becoming a member of the Traditional Chinese Medicine and Acupuncture Education Accreditation Requirements Advisory Committee or if you know someone who is, please review the attached Terms of Reference and send a Letter of Interest and a current CV outlining your qualifications to info@fics.ca.

The deadline for submission is September 18th, 2020. The first meeting is scheduled as a virtual meeting for 2 consecutive days during the week of September 28st, 2020.

Thank you for your attention to this matter!

Sincerely,

Kathrina Loeffler
Executive Director, FICS
